tion of the churches of England and Ireland, Indiction 14, in the tenth year of the pontificate of the most holy father and lord in Christ, our lord Sixtus the Fourth, by divine providence, Pope, and on the twenty-third day of the month of February, in the presence of me a notary public and of the underwritten witnesses, the well-circumstanced honourable and discreet man Patrick filius leonis, otherwise Fitz leonis, citizen, and lately mayor of the royal metropolitan city of Dublin, put in and caused to be read a certain provocation reduced to writing, and protested and did other things as in the said provocation is more fully contained, the tenor of which follows and is such.

In the name of God. Amen. I, John by the mercy of God, Archbishop of Dublin, primate of Ireland, being sound in mind, expecting the hour of death, uncertain as it is to every mortal, being about to cross the sea, and (if God will) to return, do make my testament in this manner First, I bequeath my soul to Almighty God, the blessed Virgin Mary, His mother, and all the saints, and my body to be buried in the place where God shall think fit to summon me to his judgment seat; and should I die in the kingdom of England, I leave my body to be buried in the church of St. Mary at Osney, among the abbots. Item, I will that a porthose with a missal and
